COLLEGE COLLEGE OF THE ALBEMARLE ACCREDITATION
BY SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION DEC. 4th. 1968

FINALLY

We are known as the "Dolphins" Our colors are Blue and White

To those boys in Viet Nam who might be in college now but who instead are fighting to keep us free, we the staff dedicate this 1969 edition of the C.O.A. BEACON.

Sive Them The Howers Now

Closed eyes can't see the white roses,
Cold hands can't hold them, you know,
Breath that is stilled can not gather
The odors that sweet from them blow
Death, with a peace beyond dreaming,
Its children of earth doth endoa;
Bife is the time we can help them.
So give them the flowers now!

Here are the struggles and striving,
Here are the cares and the tears;
Now is the time to be smoothing
The frowns and the furrows and fear,
What to closed eyes are kind sayings?
What to hushed heart is deep vow?
Naught can avail after parting.
So give them the flowers now!
—Beigh M. Hodges.

To The Sophomores

GRADUATES

You've come at last, ho! everyone, Scholastic tests and lessons done; With friendships made of bonds of steel, And dreams of life becoming real.

Who knows but that today you start On roads that lead you far apart; Across the world to do your share, Across the lands in faith and prayer.

Where'er you go, what'er you be, A record make for all to see; A record fine and clean and true, For all our faith and hope in you.

You'll find a world that needs your hand, Needs youth like you in every land; Courageous youth for a time like this, When the weary fail, and the world's amiss.

You have a date with destiny, Yours is to help the world to free; As you go forth to do your task, May joy of service be all you ask.

OUR COLLEGE DAYS ARE CLOSING

Our College days are closing now,
The years have swiftly flown;
I like to stop and think somehow
Of friends whom I have known.

The books have meant a world to me, And all that learning lends; But more than books can ever be Is friendship of true friends.

In college halls, on campus green,
In classroom, everywhere,
I find that they have always been
The fairest of the fair.

I cannot mention everyone
Whom I hold in memory,
But now that college days are done,
I love them tenderly.

But here's to those who all along Have kept my heart in tune; And often filled my life with song, At morning, night, and noon! WALTER GRAY

Our sincere thanks and deep appreciation go to the following students and teachers who have made it possible for us to publish what we feel is a successful yearbook, The C.O.A. Beacon.

Have you got the spirit?

Mrs. Karen Thompson Yearbook Advisor

HAPPINESS is like a crystal, Fair and exquisite and clear, Broken in a million pieces, Shattered, scattered far and near. Now and then along life's pathway, Lo! some shining fragments fall; But there are so many pieces No one ever finds them all.

You may find a bit of beauty, Or an honest share of wealth, While another just beside you Gathers honor, love or health. Vain to choose or grasp unduly, Broken is the perfect ball; And there are so many pieces No one ever finds them all.

Yet the wise, as on they journey, Treasure every fragment clear, Imagining the shattered sphere, Learning ever to be thankful, Though their share of it is small; For it has so many pieces No one ever finds them all.

-Priscilla Leonard

The Staff of the 1969 edition of the Beacon wishes to thank each person whose interest, assistance and cooperation were vital parts in the publication of this college annual.
